CFA Virtual Masterclass & In-Person Family Night Series Session

The Cumberland Family Academy (CFA) is offering a virtual Masterclass facilitated by nationally renowned educator and author Mychal Wynn titled "Helping Students Thrive Socially and Emotionally After COVID-19: What Every Family Needs to Know" on Monday, November 14 from 6:00 - 7:30 p.m. (CCS Facebook LIVE).

Also, Wynn will lead an in-person session for college-bound 8th -12th-grade students and their families on Thursday, November 17 from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m. in the Westover High School Auditorium. Sponsored by the CFA Family Night Series, the session is titled "College Planning 101: Cash for College, Financial Aid & Scholarships." The event is free and dinner will be provided, starting at 5:30 p.m., while supplies last. Register today; space is limited: <http://ow.ly/vP3F50Luyj9>.

Local High School Students Collaborate with Students in China

Chinese III Honors students Seventy-First High School recently had a collaborative lesson with Shanghai New Epoch Bilingual High School students in China. During the lesson, students made presentations, performances and exchanged questions in the target languages. This collaborative lesson was a bridge for students to interact with other students from different cultures. It also gave them new perspectives on how cultures and practices differ worldwide.

Grammy-Nominated Artist Visits Local Elementary Schools

On October 28, the students and staff at William H. Owen Elementary School enjoyed musical selections from Grammy-Nominated Rap Artist SaulPaul who visited the school on his "Be the Change" school tour. Owen Elementary was selected as one of 100 schools to have the artist visit while spreading a positive message about "being the change" and making a difference in the world. School counselor Tanisha Dumas organized the event after hearing about the artist's school tour at the 2022 American School Counselor Association summer conference.

Military-Connected Students Show Their Support

Military-connected students in Cumberland County Schools' S2S (Student 2 Student) program recently participated in the local annual Veterans Day Parade. There were over 65 students and staff members walking together to show their support for our veterans. The following schools were represented: Massey Hill Classical High School, South View High School, Westover High School, Jack Britt High School, Cumberland Virtual Academy K-12, South View High School and New Century International Elementary School.
